- Students who have not been required to pay full fees upfront as invoiced will be required to pay balance fees by invoiced due dates (payment plan agreement). Students failing to pay the instalments on the due dates will have their course cancelled, results withheld and if student visa holders reported to DIBP for non-payment of fees. If a student on a payment plan wishes to cancel their course after the packaged program start date a $350 payment plan cancellation fee will apply.

- Students who withdraw are not eligible for a refund as per the above terms and conditions however, a refund may apply if the student can provide exceptional circumstances or extreme personal hardship. Independent documented evidence such as medical certificates will be required. The decision to grant a refund based on exceptional circumstances or extreme personal hardship is wholly at the discretion of the board of Directors. In that case, fees may be refunded on a pro-rata basis, minus the $500 cancellation fee per course and application and placement fees and $350 if student is on a payment plan. However, should participants wish to resume their studies at a later date, the original fee payment can be used as credit towards that course within 12 months of initial payment.
